- Draped back (Pastel) ©AbsurdePhoton -
Soft colors for this beautiful draped back

- Discovery (Cézanne) ©AbsurdePhoton -
Warm shades for this face, repainted with Cézanne's technics

- Leaned (Illustroke) ©AbsurdePhoton -
Intertwined wires recreate this view of the library

- On the watch (Azo) ©AbsurdePhoton -
Colors become brilliant & also "drool" a little, that doesn't make this clown less disturbing though

- Sitting (dark Gruppé) ©AbsurdePhoton -

The original photo was very bright, this rendering darkens the scene, which becomes more mysterious

- Naughty (Novel) ©AbsurdePhoton -
Half-engraving, half comics, blue fits her so well

- Shower (Re-Acrylic) ©AbsurdePhoton -
The acrylic rendering simplifies the details, leaving only bright colors

- Between sky and earth (Dark) ©AbsurdePhoton -
The processing cuts out hard shadows on this silhouette, it produces a backlighting effect over a colored background

- Mysterious mirror (Aqua) ©AbsurdePhoton -
The watercolor splashes have greatly simplified the scene, deeply accentuate the shades

- Illuminated (Glamour) ©AbsurdePhoton -
The difference with the original photo is subtle, the "glamour" side is accented by the warm colors

- Pinup (Coniglietto) ©AbsurdePhoton -
The reinforced shades, allied with the touches of painting, have transformed the original photo into an artistic nude painting, which you could almost hang in your sitting-room

- Teasing (Heavy Azo) ©AbsurdePhoton -
Even if the model was reworked in a subtle way, the background has become a fluid colored scribbling, enforcing the oil painting aspect

- Prostrate (Acrylic) ©AbsurdePhoton -

The simplification process have smoothed the hair, with red & yellow dominant colors for the whole picture
